

Artists for Nature Foundation 2010 News

Environmental Education Centre and Eco Lodge in Bandhavgarh India

A second artists trip has been organized in March to Bandhavgarh, Kanha, Agra and Bharatpur.

Some of the artists comments say it all:

John and Jane Paige: "We are still unraveling all our thoughts and emotions from our wonderful India Experiences" John Therlfall: "It was a fantastic experience in so many ways, a feast for all of the senses" Darren Woodhead: "Those ANF trips are a real spice of life, Wonderful!!!"

The buildings on the Bandhavgarh site have been constructed and now we start to work on the details and to make further improvements .

We would like to welcome more artists in November 2011 and non artists in Winter and Spring 2011 - 2012 for several trips, which we will publish on our website. You are also invited to visit our exhibition and Hula/Israel ANF project book launch at the British Bird Watching Fair in the Art Marquee to held on August 19 - 21 - 2011

The projects,

Hula Valley in Israel

At the moment we are preparing and designing the project book in Hebrew, Arabic and English.

The official launch of the book will be in Israel in the spring of 2011 and for Europe at the British Bird Watching Fair, Rutland Waters, LE. England. Keep an eye on our website for the details!

Isle of Sark

In the spring of 2010 ANF board member and film maker Hans Rademakers and director Ysbrand Brouwers made a preparation trip to the Isle of Sark to talk things over with local artist and motor behind this project Rosanne Guille. During several days we filmed on location and got a very good impression of this remarkable island. Hans mounted a promotional film. and at the moment we are trying to raise money to have our first artists meeting to Sark in May 2011

Exhibition

In the offices of "Seven Oaks", Blaricum, The Netherlands we held a very successful ANF 20 years jubilee retrospect exhibition. In September 2011 we will prepare another retrospect exhibition and symposium on a larger scale at the Vollenhoven Estate in De Bilt, NL (more news on the website in Spring 2011)

ANF organization

Harm Teijen because of his retirement and Florian Hupkes because of a new and very busy job have left the ANF board. As new members we welcomed in 2010 Marjanka Huijgen, Arts Historian and Agnes van Staaten, Biologist.

ANF board and staff wants to wish you a Happy, Healthy and Successful 2011